SENT TO THE CHICAGO RADIO TRAFFIC ASSOCIATION
SEPTEMBER 19, 1927

WHEREAS, the letter and resolution of the Chicago gang were intoned aloud to the membership of the Denver club at a regular meeting held September 16, 1927, amidst the groans of all present, and

WHEREAS, a committee of the Denver club has been appointed to conduct an investigation to see if there really is such a word of English as "irregardless", and

WHEREAS, the said committee has reported that there really is no such word but that the oligarchic and undemocratic Board of Directors, by means of hypnosis and absent treatment and the use of spies in Chicago, has compelled the C.R.T.A. to use the said non-existent word in an effort to break down the Chicago morale, impair its intelligence and otherwise confuse it so that the league may be cut into sixteen pieces and placed in the respective vest pockets of the said oligarchs, and

WHEREAS, the A.R.O.D. is opposed to all such plotting and treason, and

WHEREAS, it is unlawful to attempt to print one's own money and hence the members of the A.R.O.D. are pretty generally unable to go all the way to Chicago to see the black derby hats worn by the Milwaukee amateurs at so-called National Conventions, and

WHEREAS, the human ear drum, like all other human appurtenances, will break under too much strain and Jupiter knows a Divisional Convention is enough noise, and

WHEREAS, a large number of the members of the A.R.O.D. are of English descent and hence under decree of his majesty William Hale Thompson, become undesirable aliens as soon as they set foot in Chicago and subject to deportation upon attending any National Convention held for the benefit of Chicago amateurs, and

WHEREAS, Chicago has just sold out to Tex Rickard, who doesn't know a rheostat from a grid leak unless they have price marks on them, and

WHEREAS, the members of the A.R.O.D. are not so dumb as they look, and

WHEREAS, the C. R. T.A. resolution contains only four WHEREASES and this one already has fifteen and is still going strong, and

WHEREAS, the highly intelligent, moral, beneficial, statesmanlike, far-seeing, thoughtful, ingenious, brilliant, well-considered, noble and unsullied Statement of Policy which has been so undeservedly Whereased by the C. R. T.A. was written by our own beloved little four-eyed Director, than whom there is none whomer, and

WHEREAS, we think the kid is right, and

WHEREAS, we know him to be 99 44/100 % pure, and

WHEREAS, we think he lost the other 56/100% of his purity by drinking a mixture of embalming fluid, corrosive sublimate, TNT, and bathing alcohol, sold to him as "gin" during the last National Convention in Chicago, and

WHEREAS, all things considered, the world will continue to rotate on its axis without National Conventions, now therefore, we say unto the Chicago Radio Traffic Association: WHEREASPBERRIES!!!!!!!

AND SO, BECAUSE OF THIS

NOW THEREFORE,

BE IT RESOLVED:

That we extend the cordial hand of fellowship to the CRTA and assure them that while we disagree with them, we like them, and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that we are not in favor of so-called National Conventions and this is unanimous, and we cannot find anyone in this Division who is in favor of them, and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, that we send this resolution to the C. R. T. A. with request that they frame it, and

We remain (in Denver),
